What do I get when I search by ticket number?

When searching for the amount owed on an individual ticket, the site will also tell you of any other tickets you owe in the Village of Greenport. Additional tickets are listed for the license plate associated to your search.

Can I still pay on-line if my ticket is past due?

Yes. If you search for a ticket that is past due, the late fee is already included in the price displayed to you in the search result. You do not have to add any penalties to the price displayed. If your ticket is not found in the system, please contact us at 631-477-0248 Ext. 212. Please have the ticket number, license plate and date the ticket was issued available.

What if I fail to respond to a violation?

If you fail to respond to a violation within 30 days of the date the summons was issued, penalties will begin to be added to the original fine.

Can I be held responsible for tickets issued to a vehicle that I co-own, even though I do not use the vehicle?

Yes. As a registered owner, you are liable for any tickets regardless of whether or not you were using the vehicle at the time the tickets were issued.

What happens if I don't answer a parking ticket that I was issued in the Village of Greenport?

If you fail to answer a parking ticket that has been issued in the Village of Greenport, you may be classified as a scofflaw resulting in the denial of the renewal of your registration.

Additionally, the Village may file a civil judgement against you which may adversely affect your credit rating.
